Understanding the results

EFSET	1-30	31-40	41-50	51-60	61-70	71-100
CEFR	A1 Basic	A2 Elementary	B1 Intermediate	B2 Upper intermediate	C1 Advanced	C2 Proficiency

Your level of English is 53/100 on the EF SET score scale and B2 Upper Intermediate according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). This score is calculated as an average of your reading and listening scores

Listening Section

64/100 C1 Advanced

You are comfortable in most situations that require full comprehension of spoken English; you are rarely confused or at a loss for the meaning of words and phrases. Broadcasts and films of all kinds are enjoyable for you.

- Can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signaled explicitly.
- Can understand television programs and films without too much effort.

Reading Section

42/100 B1 Intermediate

You understand most of what you read in English newspapers and internet reports on familiar topics; your English vocabulary allows you to comprehend job-related language and most personal written communications about feelings and events.

- Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.
- Can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language.

The candidate was complete EF SET test and got the following result:

53/100 on the EF SET score scale and B2 Upper Intermediate according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR)

The EF SET is currently the only standardized English test that reliably measures all skill levels, beginner to proficient, in alignment with the internationally recognized standard, the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). Other standardized English tests are able to assess some proficiency levels, but not the entire CEFR scale. Using the EF SET to track English level over months or years gives you a standardized way to evaluate your own progress.
